TUESDAY January 17, 2017 75¢ gmtoday.com

A fun-filled winter weekend JanBoree to kick off on Friday despite rainy forecast ► 5A

Packers finally experience last-second playoff win ► 1B

The FREEMAN Waukesha County's Daily Newspaper

WAUKESHA

Two men charged in gas station robberies

Authorities: Men sought

to feed drug addictions

Anthony Deleon awaits his appearance in a Waukesha Mitchell Gamroth awaits his appearance in a Wauke-County Courtroom on Monday. Deleon and Mitchell Gamroth were charged with armed robberies of two Waukesha gas stations in a five-day period earlier this month.

Andrea Fencl/Freeman Staff

Andrea Fencl/Freeman Staff sha County Courtroom on Monday.

The second of two suspects involved in an armed robbery at the Clark station at 1436 E. Moreland Blvd.

By Brian Huber Freeman Staff

WAUKESHA — Two men have been ordered held on $100,000 cash bail after being charged with armed robberies of two area gas stations, allegedly to feed a heroin addiction.

Anthony Deleon, 28, and Mitchell Gamroth, 21, both were charged Monday with being party to the crime of armed robbery. Each count carries a maximum penalty of 40 years in prison and $100,000 in fines.

A criminal complaint said both men were involved in the armed robbery of the BP gas station at 500 Arcadian Ave. on Jan. 3, where an armed suspect made off with about $795 while a colleague watched the door, as well as the armed robbery of the Clark Station at 1436 E. Moreland Blvd., where circumstances were similar to the prior robbery, but the suspects made off with about $200 to $400. In both cases, they went to Milwaukee to buy heroin, the complaint said.

roth wore. The jacket, shoes and a bandana similar to that worn by the robbers and a facsimile firearm were found at their Greenfield Avenue home in a search last Friday, the complaint said.

The complaint added both men worked at The Freeman; they were temporary employees at the paper. Deleon was absent from his job on Jan. 3, the complaint said, and Gamroth, who worked there two-to-three months earlier, had been disciplined for taking a box of blue latex gloves, similar the kind seen in the surveillance images of both incidents. Deleon confirmed the gloves were the same, the complaint said.

When Deleon was asked by investigators why he decided to go through with the gas station robbery, he responded, "It was all my idea and on the fly," and admitted he was the one holding the gun in the robberies, the complaint said. Deleon was questioned about the Clark gas station robbery and he said something to the effect of, 'We were like, it worked the first time." Gamroth, when arrested by police, at first waived his right to have an attorney present, then passed on questions, denied having a drug problem, denied being at the

Submitted surveillance photos

Authorities allege that Anthony Deleon, 28, of Waukesha is the man depicted in this image from surveillance video of an armed robbery of the Clark station at 1436 E. Moreland Blvd. on Jan. 8 after Deleon allegedly admitted it was him.

Police responded to tips

Two people identified Gamroth as a suspect in surveillance images released by police, the complaint said; both recognized his shoes and one also identified a green flannel jacket which Gam-

See ROBBERIES, PAGE 8A

An armed robbery was reported Jan. 3 at the BP gas station, 500 Arcadian Ave., Waukesha, during which a suspect put a gun to the clerk's head.

One of the suspects involved in an armed robbery of the BP gas station, 500 Arcadian Ave., Waukesha, was caught on surveillance camera.

Dave Fidlin/Special to The Freeman

Waukesha residents display messages on signs Saturday during an afternoon rally in protest of a proposed U.S. Cellular tower. The proposal seeks to add the tower to the property of a nearby church on Magnolia Drive.

Residents rally against proposed cell tower Waukesha Plan Commission to review proposal Jan. 25 Sound Off

By Dave Fidlin Special to The Freeman

WAUKESHA — "We love our backyard." "Keep the "Protect our chilpeace." dren.'

Those were some of the phrases some Waukesha residents displayed on signs Saturday during an afternoon rally in protest of a proposed U.S. Cellular tower in the heart of a neighborhood, south of the Waukesha County Expo Center on Magnolia bad." Drive.

dents demonstrating against the proposed tower, which has been eyed on a strip of land adjacent to Buen Samaritano United Methodist Church, 915 Magnolia Drive.

"People throughout this neighborhood are mad," Matthias said. "This is an example of corporate greed. This is deal that just smells

U.S. Cellular, one of the Resident Jan Matthias was region's largest wireless carone of several dozen resi- riers, currently has a tower near the Huber facility on county-owned land through a lease agreement, which will expire Oct. 31.

Although the county and U.S. Cellular had attempted negotiating a lease renewal, those talks reached a stalemate. One rub, according to U.S. Cellular representatives, was a caveat the cell carrier

What do you think?

Phone: 262-513-2641 Email: soundoff@conleynet.com

protect the county from any potential lawsuits filed in relation to the cell tower.

U.S. Cellular approached Buen Samaritano leadership about placing a tower on the property. The church initially agreed with the company, but

See TOWER, PAGE 8A

INDEX ed......5B Obituaries......7A ord puzzle.....4B Sports......1B Doctors......7B Weather......8A

WEATHER

See complete forecast on Page 8A

From the Waukesha Police blotter

1:05 a.m. Saturday — A vehicle reportedly kept circling in the 700 block of North Glenn Road and the occupants were "making strange howling noises." The caller said they had gone past their house at least 10 times. They were gone upon police arrival.

For the complete weekend blotter, see page 7A.

TO SUBSCRIBE TO THE FREEMAN, call 262-542-2500 or go online at: gmtoday.com/subscribe also worries,

potential

Trump, in flap with civil rights icon, meets MLK's son

NEW YORK (AP) — Days before taking office, President-elect Donald Trump attempted to navigate the fallout of his flap with a civil rights leader and colleague of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. while also losing a member of his incoming administration to accusations of plagiarism. Trump on Monday met with one of King's sons on the holiday marking the life of the slain American icon just days after the president-elect attacked Rep. John Lewis on Twitter. Lewis and the elder King were among the Big Six leaders of the civil rights

Associated Press

President-elect Donald Trump shakes hands with Martin Luther King III, son of Martin Luther King Jr. on Monday at Trump Tower in New York.

said that while he disagreed with the president-elect's comments, he believed "at some point in this nation we've got to move forward."

"He said that he is going to represent all Americans. He said that over and over again," King told reporters in the lobby of Trump Tower after the nearly hourlong meeting. "I believe that's his

United States. He has not exhibited the characteristics or the values that we hold dear.'

The Martin Luther King holiday is meant to honor community service and volunteerism, and many Americans, including President Barack Obama, spend part of the day doing a service pro-ject of some kind. Trump,

Official: Orlando shooter's widow has been arrested

wife of the Orlando nightclub shooter, who was extensively questioned by federal agents in the days after the massacre, was arrested by the FBI on Monday in connection with the attack, authorities said.

Noor Salman was taken into custody Monday morning in the San Francisco area and is facing charges in Florida including obstruction of justice. A Twitter post from the United States attorney's office in Orlando said Salman will make her initial appearance Tuesday morning in Oakland, California.

Noor Salman moved to California after her husband, Omar Mateen, was killed in a shootout with SWAT team

Police: 5 killed in shooting at nightclub at Mexican resort

WASHINGTON (AP) — The members during the June 12 massacre at the Pulse night-

> FBI agents repeatedly queseverything" regarding his plans to shoot up the club. She also said he had physically abused her.

> knowledge nor could she predict what Omar Mateen intended to do that tragic night," her attorney, Linda Moreno, said in a statement.

we can continue to provide network service to our customers in the area," Graham said. "These ongoing

ests.

"We need to ensure that negotiations have resulted in us looking for a new

Amid the exploration of alternative sites, Graham said the church property

"was determined to provide the best wireless service for

For their part, residents

The item will be taken up

Amy Gruetzmacher, who lives near the proposed tower with her husband and four children, said the

within the neighborhood

tower site location."

our customers."

meeting Jan. 25.

club in Orlando. tioned Salman in the aftermath of the shooting about whether she had advance knowledge of her husband's plans. Salman told The New York Times in an interview published last fall that she knew her husband had watched jihadist videos but that she was "unaware of

"Noor Salman had no fore-said they are determined to continue fighting against the cell tower through whichever channels possible. Residents plan to speak at future Plan Commission meetings to continue airing their grievances. at the commission's next movement of the 1960s.

Trump accused Lewis, D-Ga., for being "all talk" after Lewis questioned the legitimacy of Trump's election. The president-elect also advised the veteran congressman to pay more attention to his "crime ridden" Atlantaarea district. Trump's comments drew widespread criticism and have done little to reassure those uneasy about the transition from the nation's first black president to a president-elect still struggling to connect with most nonwhite voters.

Martin Luther King III downplayed the slight, saying that "in the heat of emotion a lot of things get said on both sides." King, who said he pressed Trump on the need for voting reform to increase participation, deemed the meeting "constructive." King intent, but I think we also have to consistently engage with pressure, public pressure. It doesn't happen automatically."

Trump, who struggled for support from minority voters on Election Day, briefly joined King in the lobby but ignored reporters' shouted questions about his comments about Lewis.

Lewis had suggested that Trump's November victory was delegitimized due to Russian interference and said he would boycott Friday's Inauguration. More than two dozen Democratic members of Congress have said they will sit out the Trump ceremony. Among them is Tennessee Rep. Steve Cohen, who said Monday that "this presi-dent 'semi-elect' does not deserve to be president of the who cancelled a planned trip to Washington, spent the day Manhattan inside the skyscraper that bears his name.

Meanwhile, conservative media commentator Monica Crowley will not be joining the Trump administration following accusations of plagiarism, according to a transition official.

Crowley, a frequent on-air presence at Fox News Channel, had been slated to join Trump's National Security Council as a director of strategic communications. On Monday, she withdrew her name from consideration after CNN reported last week that several passages in a 2012 book Crowley wrote were plagiarized. Publisher HarperCollins then pulled the book.

shooting attack at an electron- fire with another person ic music festival in Mexico's inside. Festival security per-Caribbean coast resort of sonnel tried to stop the shoot-Playa del Carmen on Monday ing and came under fire. left five people dead, including two Canadians, an Italian and a Colombian, authorities said.

The attorney general of Quintana Roo state said that four of the dead appear to have been part of the security detail at the 10-day BPM electronic music festival.

Miguel Angel Pech said the shooting occurred about 2:30 a.m. at the Blue Parrot nightclub, one of the BPM Festival's venues in Playa del Carmen, just south of Cancun.

Pech said a lone gunman apparently entered the night-

CANCUN, Mexico (AP) — A club and began to exchange

Pech said it was not a terrorist attack.

The shooting apparently caused a rush of people heading for the exits at the beachside club, and the lone female victim was apparently killed during the stampede.

Pech said 15 people were injured, included one Mexican woman who was seriously injured. He said five of the injured — including two U.S. citizens and one Canadian had been treated for less serious injuries at local hospitals and released.

neighborhood has coalesced around the issue. Several communication efforts. including an email group list, have kept impacted property owners apprised of the issue, she said.

"We've established a Facebook group, knocked on doors ... anything to get the word out," Gruetzmacher said. "We're all concerned."

If the tower does move forward, Graham said U.S. Cellular will continue working with county and city officials and nearby property owners to ensure a smooth relationship.

'We welcome further dialogue around this, and we look forward to having additional conversations with Waukesha leaders and residents," Graham said in his statement.

Robberies From Page 1A

gas stations for some time, then invoked his Fifth Amendment rights against self-incrimination when asked about DNA on the clothes used in the robbery. He then asked to speak to a public defender.

Court hearing

In court Monday, Assistant District Attorney Melissa Zilavy sought a $250,000 cash bail for both men in separate appearances, saying two drug-fueled armed robberies within five days warranted a high cash bail.

shek, appearing for both men as a friend of the court until beleon implicated Gamroth. permanent decisions can be made on the status of their attorneys, said Deleon's prior nal record than Deleon and a record of forgery and graffiti was dated and not that severe.

"It sounds like, according to criminal complaint, he was cooperative with law enforce-ment in terms of telling them is virtue of the other what was going on, which is often a good sign," he said. He suggested Deleon be allowed Huber bailee status, so that he can work but report back to the jail where he can be monitored for drug and alcohol use.

In Gamroth's case, Zillavy But Court Commissioner argued that two people identi- Thomas Pieper dismissed

But attorney Mark Ker- fied him as a suspect in the But Kershek argued that Gamroth had a lesser crimirelatively stable work history, and suggested a $5,000 cash bail and $95,000 signature bond.

> defendant was much older and my client was much younger creates a presumption that my client was somewhat led in this thing. I could be wrong, but it would be unusual if it was reversed." he said on Gamroth's behalf.

Deleon's request for Huber bailee status, saying it wasn't appropriate given the nature of the allegations. And, he pointed out, a pretrial screening of Gamroth showed he admitted to using heroin daily, putting him at the higher end of the spectrum as far as risk is concerned.

In both cases, Pieper ordered the men held on $100,000 cash bail, with the conditions that they have no contact with the victims, witnesses, or each other, no use of dangerous weapons and no use of drugs. They will appear in court again Wednesday.

Email: bhuber@conleynet.com

Discover Financial Strategies for Successful Retirement Learn how to make informed decisions of your estate. If you are over the age 50, UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN about your future, set realistic goals, this comprehensive course, which Colleges properly allocate assets, minimize the touches on all the issues facing retirees impact of taxes and inflation, control today, is a must! healthcare costs, and plan for the transfer SOUTHEAST REGION Thursdays, Feb. 9, 16 & 23 Fee: $99 Course Instructors: Dan Gilipsky & Roger Klumb • UW Waukesha – 1500 N. University Drive, Waukesha Continuing Education in cooperation with UW-Extension For Online registration: https://ce.uwc.edu/waukesha/catalog/financial-strategies-for-successful-retirement Serving Sheboygan, Washington, and 262-521-5460 Waukesha Counties 2538970