

CHRIS COLBOURNE/St. Albert Gazette

TALL TOWER – Crews work to install the electronic components of a new Telus 5G tower on the property of the Braeside Presbyterian Church on Tuesday morning. Rev. Janet Taylor said there is a long-term lease in place for the tower and Telus even offered to ensure the top of the tower was affixed with a cross to help keep its appearance in line with the church.